Any unexcused absences after the initial warning may cause the member to forfeit his/her position and create a vacancy on the Planning Council. Committee members who have three (3) absences (excused or unexcused) from the same committee may forfeit their position on that committee. APPENDIX 1
STANDING COMMITTEES AS OF APRIL 28, 2009

Allocations Committee

The Allocations Committee is responsible for determining where funding should be spent in order to address the service needs as prioritized by the Planning Council. While making funding decisions for service categories, the Allocations Committee does not decide which agency will receive the funds; that is a role of the Administrative Agency. The Allocations Committee makes recommendations for funding throughout the year as monies are received by the Administrative Agency and annually when requests are submitted to the federal and state governments for new funding.

Comprehensive Planning Committee

The Comprehensive Planning Committee develops and implements a process to identify the needs for Persons Living with HIV/AIDS (PLWHA) and priorities for services. This process is conducted through needs assessments which utilize surveys and interviews of persons infected and affected by HIV to assess changes in their health status and service needs. A comprehensive plan is created from the needs assessment. In addition to the needs assessment and comprehensive plan, services are reviewed and prioritized annually by the committee.

Positive Voices Coalition

The Positive Voices Coalition serves as a medium for PLWHA for input to the Planning Council regarding HIV+ consumer needs and services. This committee is comprised of HIV-positive community members, patient navigators, and service providers who serve as liaisons.

Evaluation Committee

The Evaluation Committee creates and conducts an assessment of the administrative mechanism “to insure funds are rapidly distributed to the areas of greatest need as identified by the Planning Council.” The Committee also develops, reviews, and updates the standards of care for service categories.

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee is comprised of the Chair, Vice Chair, Parliamentarian, and Chair Elect or Immediate Past Chair of the Planning Council, and the chairs and vice chairs/co-chairs of each standing committee. The Executive Committee meets periodically to ensure the orderly and integrated progression of work is done by all standing and ad hoc committees, to plan future activities, and to recommend items for meetings. The members for the Executive Committee have the responsibility for recruiting, interviewing and making recommendations of potential new members to the Planning Council. The Executive Committee serves as the Grievance Committee.

1. $50.00 administrative filing fee payable to Tarrant County, Texas;
2. Fully completed Request for Hearing form and attachments (Attachment A);

4. For grievances alleging collusion or conflict of interest, a notarized affidavit stating specific facts within the personal knowledge of the affiant supporting the contention of collusion or conflict of interest.

The timeline for seeking Grievance Committee review may not be extended. If the affidavit fails to provide specific facts within the personal knowledge of the affiant, the relief will not apply to reverse the decision that the grievant seeks to reverse.

Grievance Committee review must commence within five (5) business days after the date of receipt of the accelerated appeal filing as listed in 1 – 4 above. Timelines may not be extended by either party.

B. Arbitration (binding)

If the grievant is dissatisfied with the decision of the Grievance Committee review, then the grievant may file for arbitration. Failure to complete the forms, to file the forms or to file the fees will result in termination of accelerated appeal. Arbitration must be concluded within twenty-one (21) days after the day of the filing of the Request for Arbitration. If delay in conducting the Arbitration may be attributed to grievant, the penalty shall include termination of the accelerated appeal without granting the relief sought by grievant.

VI. Grievance Committee Review Procedures

The Grievance Committee may dismiss an invalid request without a hearing if the Committee finds:

1. A Request is filed without the required fee.

2. A Request seeks relief beyond the scope of these rules.
3. A Request complains of an action that may not be the subject of a grievance.
4. A Request fails to specify the relief sought.
5. A Request does not include a notarized affidavit when one is required.
6. A Request includes a notarized affidavit but is not based on personal knowledge.

In the event of a dismissal, the grievance may not be appealed to mediation or arbitration.

The grievant has the burden of proof at the Grievance Committee review hearing. The grievant is allowed to present the grievance arguments first and may make a final statement. The Grievance Committee may not grant the grievant more relief than requested in the grievance. The hearing is open to the public. Confidentiality statements may be signed by all persons present if confidential information regarding a participant is a possible part of the grievance. The grievant and the representative of the Planning Council may be called upon by the Grievance Committee to explain at the beginning of the hearing whether there is any likelihood of such information being a part of the grievance. A decision is final so long as it is rendered by at least three members of the Grievance Committee who were present at the hearing and who considered the evidence presented. The Grievance Committee shall announce its decision to grievant at the end of the hearing. The announcement in open session triggers the timetable to file an appeal for either mediation for non-accelerated appeals or arbitration for accelerated appeals.

VII. Mediation Procedures

Mediation allows the parties to select a mediator mutually agreeable to the grievant and the Planning Council. However, in the event of a lack of mutual agreement, Dispute Resolution Services of Tarrant County, Texas will serve as the mediator. The grievance remains limited to the grounds and relief provided in the Request for Hearing. The mediator's costs shall be shared equally between the grievant and the Planning Council. The date mediation terminates triggers the timetable to file an appeal for arbitration.

VIII. Arbitration Procedures

The Arbitration Panel shall consist of three arbitrators. The Chair or the Chair's designated representative from the Planning Council shall designate one individual to serve as an arbitrator, but said arbitrator shall not be a member of the Planning Council. Likewise, the grievant shall designate one individual to serve as an arbitrator, but said arbitrator shall not be (1) an employee or employer of the grievant; (2) another grievant with a pending grievance before the Planning Council, or that grievant's representative; or (3) a board member of an organization who is a grievant. Those two selected individuals shall then jointly select a mutually agreeable individual to serve as the third arbitrator. These three individuals shall form the Arbitration Panel. The Arbitration Panel shall meet and receive oral and written presentations from the grievant and a representative of the Planning Council. The Arbitration Panel shall reach a decision within three (3) hours of the close of the presentations of the grievant and the Planning Council. Failure to reach a decision shall result in the decision of the Grievance Committee being upheld. The Arbitration Panel decision is binding on grievant and the Planning Council. The Arbitration Panel may not grant and the grievant may not seek relief beyond the relief requested in the Request for Hearing. The grievant may not provide new grounds for relief beyond those grounds provided in the grievance filed requesting a hearing before the Grievance Committee. Costs of the arbitration will be paid by the non-prevailing party. If neither party prevails, costs shall be shared equally between the Planning Council and the grievant.

IX. General Procedures Applicable to Grievance Committee Review, Mediation and Arbitration.

Administrative filing fees may be waived by the Grievance Committee upon written request with written documentation of financial hardship from grievant. However, the request must be granted by the Planning Council within the applicable time limit for the filing of the grievant's paperwork. If the grievant fails to appear at any stage of the appeals process, the grievance will be considered waived and all costs assessed against the grievant. Failure to file required fully completed forms with appropriate administrative filing fees within the time limits established in these procedures shall result in the waiver of the grievance. The timeline for seeking Grievance Committee review may not be extended unless the Planning Council and the grievant agree to the extension in writing.
